Jane Mitnick, Co-Founder and President

Jane Mitnick serves as President of SM Financial Services Corporation, an entity formed to invest in and manage the purchase of financial assets from trustees and fiduciaries, particularly judgments, preferences, notes, and accounts receivable. Jane supervises and manages wind downs of all forms of corporate entities and supervises auctions and sales. She serves as receiver, special fiscal agent, assignee for the benefit of creditors, escrow agent, shareholder, trustee and liquidating trustee. An important focus of Jane's work is the purchase and collection of medical receivables. She co-leads the team in the collection and monetization of receivables in the insolvent healthcare space from hospitals to professional practices, both the insurance and patient components.

Jane is a lecturer speaking on corporate liquidation, debt collection, assignments for the benefit of creditors (ABC's), litigation financing, asset recovery, c-suite practices and state court receiverships.

Jane maintains the company's portfolio of all financial assets and is the managing partner of the firm.
